What’s Available!

In the Guidance Office are guidance-related information flyers and school forms. All appointments for parent-teacher conferences are made through the Guidance Office.

In the Media Center, we currently have computers for PowerSchool (grades), Galileo (research), and Internet (web searches for school-based research only). We also have textbooks and print resources used in health classes available for parents’ perusal.

Camden County Schools strive to create the best learning environment for you and your student. Resources are available during the school day (7:40 am – 3:40 pm) and always online (CCS webpage, *Students, Destiny, CMS, and Home or *Students, Clever, and Log in with Google).

Parents are their child’s first and best teachers.
 You make a difference in the life of your child/children every day.
 Ideas could include reading with or sharing a craft with a class or group of students in a class.

Let us help you make a difference in their education, their educational goals, and their life goals.
